

TRIPLE (EFF) SUPPLY CHAIN

Consulting Services

We ensure your business operates at its full potential in today's dynamic supply chain environment. As we all return to a semblance of order post COVID-19 global pandemic, and the ever presence of digitization it is crucial for your business to be prepared.

With our expertise and experience, we deliver essential supply chain, manufacturing, and logistics initiatives to optimize your company's performance.

In an ever-evolving landscape, what suffices today won't be sufficient tomorrow. To achieve sustainable growth, you must enhance your business while effectively managing the existing complexities of your current supply chain.

Devoting a dedicated team to this task can be challenging. That's where Triple (EFF) Consulting comes in. We guide your business in achieving WGL2 (What Good Looks Like) in your supply chain, transforming it into a competitive advantage that helps you meet both short and long-term objectives.

Company Profile

Triple EFF Consulting was established in September 2015, with a view to help people and businesses get to what we like to term as “what good looks like”. As a supply chain practitioner and a lifelong operator, I believe that the knowledge attained during 40 plus years is still relevant and as a Company Triple EFF lives by the mantra that “Knowledge not shared is Energy Wasted”.

Frank Findlow, the director of Triple (EFF), is an esteemed supply chain expert based in Indonesia. With extensive experience throughout Southeast Asia, Frank has lived and worked in various countries including the United Kingdom, Canada, Libya, Australia, New Zealand, Singapore, Malaysia, China, Vietnam, India, and Indonesia, gaining invaluable insights and expert knowledge in each location. His professional background spans diverse industries such as mining, manufacturing, automotive, heavy chemicals, gasses, supply chain, and logistics. This breadth of expertise equips him with the skills and knowledge necessary to elevate your company from ordinary operations to achieving What Good Looks Like (WGL2).

Diverse Expertise

Frank has collaborated with numerous global corporations including HJ Heinz, Unilever, Linfox, Ford, Denison Mines, and ICI, accumulating a wealth of experience in multiple disciplines. His extensive operational background across various industries has uniquely positioned him as a global thinker, capable of offering innovative solutions to your business challenges. With close to 20 years of experience in Indonesia and Southeast Asia, Frank has cultivated a strong network of contacts and possesses in-depth knowledge to effectively position your business in the Southeast Asian market.

Proven Success in Multiple Industries

Having demonstrated a track record of achievements in the food, petrochemical, mining, and logistics supply chain sectors, Frank excels at driving success in Indonesia. Whether it entails strategic decision-making in the boardroom or hands-on implementation on the shop floor, Frank's expertise covers the entire spectrum.

Triple EFF: Making Things Happen

At Triple EFF, we specialize in making things happen. Our core strength lies in generating substantial cost savings through the implementation of process-driven improvements. As a visionary team, we anticipate industry trends and proactively stay ahead of the curve.

Leveraging our deep understanding of the Indonesian market, extensive experience, and vast network of contacts, Triple EFF provides strategic supply chain consulting services tailored to benefit your business.

Whether you're a startup seeking guidance or an established firm aiming for growth, Triple EFF is dedicated to helping your business thrive.

How Can a Supply Chain Consultant Help You?

Lots of businesses are getting the job done in Indonesia, but they aren't necessarily doing it right. The complexity of doing business in Indonesia can mean your business strategy needs to be tweaked. Hiring a supply chain consultant can smooth out the bumps in your supply chain and give you the tools to succeed. Your business can set the standard for a job well done if you let our team show you What Good Looks Like (WGL2) for your supply chain.

Services

Triple EFF can offer white paper preparations with clear solutions to any issues you are facing. Our baseline analysis will provide a clear look at the strengths of your company's operations. We will then address the areas that need to be improved upon. Triple (EFF) will give you the tools you need to gain a competitive advantage in your industry in both the short and long term. Our experience in various industries means we have faced challenges in several areas. Our creative problem-solving skills will be put to work for you and your company.

Improve your supply chain.

It can be difficult to determine which part of your supply chain needs fixing on your own, and hiring a full-time supply chain expert might not be the right decision. Whether you are an existing operation or a new startup, Triple (EFF) is on the ground, in Indonesia, which means that we are the perfect supply chain partners to help you and your business. Triple (EFF) can help in increasing performance, improving your supply chain flexibility, risk management, customer service, and developing your business strategy. Triple (EFF) has the expertise and the connections to help you build from the ground up or expand into new markets.

A recent addition to our activities is our collaboration with several supply chain specialists in and around Indonesia and the broader Southeast Asia. The Links below provide more information.

Transportation Services

Efficient and effective transportation lies at the heart of any successful supply chain operation. Ensuring prompt and efficient delivery of goods is crucial for businesses. However, improving transportation costs and speed can be challenging without firsthand experience in the field. This is where Triple (EFF) holds a distinct advantage. As a local and experienced company in Indonesia, Triple (EFF) possesses the expertise, contacts, and market knowledge to address your transportation challenges with confidence.

When considering supply chain improvements, transportation plays a pivotal role. It involves careful consideration of various factors to identify the right solutions for your business. Should you maintain your own fleet of delivery vehicles, or would it be more advantageous to engage subcontractors? How can you optimize your load to maximize efficiency? Moreover, ensuring the safety of your workers and customers remains a paramount concern throughout these enhancements. At Triple (EFF) Consulting, we have dealt with these questions extensively and can provide tailored answers to meet your specific needs.

Our team of experts understands the intricacies of transportation logistics and can guide you in making informed decisions. Whether it's devising optimal routes, optimizing load capacities, or selecting reliable transportation partners, we have the knowledge and experience to drive positive change in your supply chain. By leveraging our deep understanding of the local market, extensive network of contacts, and industry best practices, we can help eliminate uncertainty and deliver the best transportation solutions for your business.

Partnering with Triple (EFF) Consulting ensures that you receive customized answers to your transportation challenges. We prioritize safety, efficiency, and cost-effectiveness, allowing you to enhance your supply chain while maintaining a secure environment for your workers and customers. Trust Triple (EFF) to optimize your transportation operations and propel your business forward.

Tools we use.

Let Triple (EFF) show you What Good Looks Like. Our transportation expertise can help you make sense of all your transportation questions:

- Owned fleet v subcontractors

Supply Chain Improvement Opportunities

Performance Improvement

Your company's performance relies on a great supply chain operation. Successful supply chain operation is necessary to gain a competitive advantage and to keep your customers satisfied. Triple (EFF) will assess your current operations and determine what role your supply chain needs to play in the current market as well as in the future. Using a "pulse check", Triple (EFF) can determine how efficiently your supply chain operates and whether there are areas where it trips up. Triple (EFF) can show you the best way to maximize your supply chain and guide you in prioritizing the areas you need to focus on in order to keep improving.

Analysis for improvement

Triple (EFF) has several tools and services to analyze and implement processes that will help your company show others in the industry What Good Looks Like. Triple (EFF)'s knowledge of Indonesia and the rest of Southeast Asia means that we can look closely at your business and its supply chain operation from start to finish. Triple (EFF) can develop a plan to focus on the strengths and minimize the weaknesses in your supply chain.

The ever-changing world of Supply Chain is embracing the newest technologies and it is paramount that your business considers digitization but that you do so in a considered way, this is where we can help.

In addition to improving the supply chain itself, Triple EFF looks at areas related to the supply chain, such as site safety. Triple (EFF) can introduce improvement initiatives and measure your productivity.

Let Triple (EFF) help you make the improvements you need to get you to the top of your industry. Triple (EFF) can offer you the analysis and feedback you need to harness your supply chain. With Triple (EFF)'s help, your company will show the world What Good Looks Like.

Testimonials

“I have had the pleasure of working with Frank for over 8 years across Asia. He is a highly experienced supply chain professional with the rare ability to work at both operational and strategic levels. Moreover, Frank has the capability to consistently deliver on implementation projects, even in the most challenging of environments. This includes the design and set-up of Mega Distribution Centers in Jakarta, Beijing, and various locations across India for FMCG clients.”

Footnote:

Triple EFF's definition of “What good looks like” is as follows.

“What good looks like” refers to a well-defined desirable state or outcome that serves as a benchmark for success. It considers several characteristics and standards that define excellence and effectiveness in a particular context. This allows businesses and individuals to identify and drive for best performance, highest quality, and optimal results.
